

News Release

Date: May 10, 2017

Contact: Carol Fusaro, 603.228.0836, carol@sullivancreative.com

Sullivan Creative Wins 2017 Business in the Arts Award from the NH Business Committee for the Arts

Sullivan Creative received the 2017 Business in the Arts Award from the New Hampshire Business Committee for the Arts (NHBCA) on Monday, May 8. Sullivan Creative was recognized for its donations of time, money, and resources to the arts in their communities and statewide. The League of NH Craftsmen nominated Sullivan Creative for the award for actively promoting and preparing marketing materials and grant applications for its organization and events. Owner Pam Sullivan (shown right) received the award at the NHBCA's annual Arts Award Gala in Manchester. More than 300 business and arts leaders attended the 33rd annual celebration.

The Awards are sponsored by the New Hampshire Business Committee for the Arts to publicly recognize and honor businesses for their significant impact on New Hampshire's arts and cultural community.

Sullivan Creative provides integrated marketing and creative services that make a difference for our clients. We build awareness, generate excitement, and get results for businesses, non-profits, and organizations that focus on the arts, travel and tourism, health and wellness, and economic development. Sullivan Creative has offices in Concord and Littleton, NH. Learn more at sullivancreative.com.

###